GETTING READY

Getting ready is more than zipping up your dress and straightening attack! This is the time when the bulk of your wedding details will be captured. Careful planning and communication will be spent on making this part of the day seamless.

CEREMONY

Transitioning to the ceremony can happen in a number of ways. Perhaps you would like to see each other prior to alleviate those wedding day jitters! We can create opportunities to shoot different groupings between the getting ready portion of the day and when the ceremony takes place. Know that every memory will be captured while you exchange your vows with your love.

GROUP PORTRAITS

Rest assured we have a detailed plan when it comes to taking those family pictures. Careful planning and execution will make this portion of the day move flawlessly. We strive to shoot a great course set of images with the wedding party and allow enough time to make some or all of cocktail hour if you wish.

COUPLE'S PORTRAITS

Throughout the day we will capture a variety of images of you together as a couple or favorite part of the day is always our last set of images at sunset.

RECEPTION

Finally! A time to kick back and relax. Dinner, speeches and the cake cutting are just a few of the events to potentially plan for. Every wedding is different and unique trust that we will capture everything down to the smallest detail.

WHAT IS A FIRST LOOK?

A first look as a private moment between you and your love that occurs prior to the ceremony. Great care is taken to make sure that this is meaningful and special. Couples love this because it gives them a chance to be together as a couple, in private, before the day really kicks off. Couples frequently state that they feel calmer and more relaxed after seeing each other.

WHY WE LOVE IT?

Deciding to do a first look allows us to complete more photography before the ceremony. Oftentimes we can start and finish the wedding party or family pictures before the ceremony which allows you and your spouse to be free to enjoy your cocktail hour in for after you exchange vows.

STILL NOT SURE? No problem! If you preferred to keep their condition of seeing each other for the first time as you walk down the aisle, we will create the perfect timeline for that as well either way we have you covered!

In a word- AMAZING!! Robin is a true professional with a phenomenal eye for detail. The moments she is able to capture, the quality of her work and the art she is able to deliver is like no one we have ever worked with. She is incredibly friendly, and very easy to work with: her positive attitude calms the most stressful times of the day. We highly recommend Robin for any event you wish to capture your most cherished moments.
